Clin d'œil supports the Fondation de la mode de Montréal

Over the years, Clin d'œil magazine has cemented its reputation as Quebec's leading authority on fashion and beauty. As a pioneer in the Quebec fashion scene, Clin d'œil has been a source of constant inspiration as seasons and styles come and go with its trademark originality, daring and determination. Thanks to this winning combination, this year, we are celebrating 30 years of a special relationship with an enthusiastic, fashion-savvy and faithful readership.

At Quebecor, we wanted to celebrate the 30th anniversary of Clin d'œil by teaming up with an organization that has been committed to preparing the next generation of professionals and promoting research in the fashion and textile industries for more than 20 years. It is therefore my great pleasure to be the guest of honour for this 21st benefit gala and to have the opportunity to applaud the achievements of the Fondation de la mode de Montréal.

We are all responsible for building the workforce of tomorrow, no matter what field we work in. Helping our youth realize their full potential—and thereby enriching our culture and strengthening the future of our society—is something Quebec cares deeply about. Like the Fondation de la mode de Montréal, we embrace this challenge every day and actively participate in the growth and development of our up-and-comers, because it is clear that solid partnerships like these are key to their prosperity. We are therefore proud to join forces with the Fondation and to encourage the next generation to think outside the box and bring an innovative spirit to everything they do.
